APPLICATION FOR PENSION

TO THE HONORABLE COURT OF Carroll COUNTY,
Sitting as a Pension Board:

The undersigned, as state an ex-Confederate soldier, hereby applies for a pension under the provisions of an act of the General Assembly of the State of Arkansas, entitled "An Act for the Relief of Certain Soldiers of the late War between the States," approved April 1, 1891, upon the following grounds:

That he is a bona fide resident of the State of Arkansas, and has been for more than twelve months next before the filing of this application;

That he is Benjamin F. Rudd who enlisted as a soldier in the State of Arkansas during the war between the States in Company B of the 4th Regiment of Arkansas State Troops and continued in the service of the State of Arkansas or of America until he became sick with the measles at Wilsons Creek State of Missouri. On the 12 day of August 1861 he became Paralyzed from sd [said] measles and a relapse so that he lost use of his numb legs and feet and hands and Body.

1 Benjamin Franklin Rudd's pension application was initially rejected by State Auditor W.S. Dunlop and acting Governor C.C. Hamby. Perhaps the state officials in Little Rock gave little credence to testimony from men they didn't know. While enlistment forms exist for brothers James Jasper Rudd and Absalom Mann Rudd, Benjamin's seems to be missing. However, Benjamin's second application was accepted, bolstered by recommendations from county officials and the testimony of a comrade (W.M. Usrey) who had served with the Rudd's.

2 William Simpson Dunlop (1833-1914) was State Auditor from 1887-1893. A Confederate veteran, Dunlop served as Major in the 12th South Carolina Infantry. His book "Lee's Sharpshooters" was published in 1899.

3 Christopher Columbus Hamby (1851-1921) was a State Senator from 1891-1894. As president of the Senate, Hamby was next in succession and became acting governor during Gov. James Philip Eagle's illness. The ditto marks under Hamby's signature seem to suggest that he was also Attorney General. However, state records show William E. Atkinson as Attorney General from 1889-1893.

Confederate Service Record of Benjamin Franklin Rudd (1842-1926)

[side notation] of measles

That [he] is now indigent and incapacitated for manual labor by reason of said permanent injury of his legs and feet arms and hands and body.

That he is not receiving any aid from this State or from the United States on said account, under any other statute, and therefore makes application for relief under the act aforesaid.

STATE OF ARKANSAS
COUNTY OF Carroll

On this day personally came before the undersigned a Notary Public within and for County of Carroll and State of Arkansas, J.P. Fancher and W.M. Usrey⁷ citizens of Carroll County, Ark., whom I certify to be creditable persons and worthy of confidence, who being duly sworn, state that they are each, personally, well acquainted with applicant B.F. Rudd and have known him 45 and 47 years, respectively.

That he was a Confederate soldier. Belonging to Company "B"⁸ Fancher's⁹ Company, 4th Regiment (Walker's) of Aransas Inf. That as such soldier he served from March 1861 to August - September 1861. That he was honorably released from such service, and did not desert the same. That he is now and has been for the past twelve months a bona fide resident of Arkansas. That he is incapacitated by reason of Paralysis caused by Measles and that such incapacity (or disability) is not the result of his own vicious habits still persisted in. That to best of our knowledge, all property now owned by him and his wife, together, is not worth exceeding $400 (exclusive of household goods and wearing apparel). That neither he nor his wife is in receipt of any income, annuity, pension or wages for any services, or the emoluments of an office, in excess of $150 per year. That we have no interest in this claim & served with him as such soldiers.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 12th day of June 1901.

⁷ William Madison Usrey (1841-1927) was 2nd Sgt., Company A, 17th Arkansas Cavalry Battalion. This battalion was also known as Harrell's or Crawford's Battalion. Usrey had first-hand knowledge of Benjamin Franklin Rudd's service, since he and Benjamin's brothers enlisted and served together. Usrey was also the uncle of Julia Ann Rebecca Usrey, Benjamin's wife.

⁹ Alexander Fancher (1812-1857) was an uncle of both Capt. Hampton Bynum Fancher and James Polk Fancher. Alexander led the wagon train that perished in the Mountain Meadows Massacre on 11 Sep 1857. He was one of 121 adults and older children killed there. Their remains were left unburied for over a year, when Maj. James H. Carleton oversaw the burial of 34 victims.

12 Hollis Bascum Rudd (1887-1927) was the oldest son of Benjamin Franklin Rudd and Julia Ann Rebecca Usrey. Hollis was thus testifying on his mother's behalf. Hollis, while clearing debris in the aftermath of a tornado storm, was shot and killed by William Burton Ussery. Despite the similar last name, it's unlikely William Burton Ussery was Hollis's maternal cousin. Julia's family were descendants of Samuel Usrey, Jr. (1811-1864) who migrated from White County, Tennessee, before 1860. William Burton Ussery's paternal family originated from Missouri, moved frequently, and didn't arrive in Carroll County until the late 1890's.
